THE WEATHER.

The daily record of the thermometer in this city for yesterday, as reported by C. W. Brandon, was: 7 a. m., 24 degrees above; 12 m., 44 degrees above; 4 p. m., 58 degrees above; 8 p. m., 42 degrees above.

ABOUT THE CITY.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Collins, Monday, March 28, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Walsworth returned to Butte yesterday after a brief visit with friends in this city.

The election of two school trustees for this district will take place next Saturday. As yet very little interest is manifested in the matter.

The little daughter of T. C. Davidson, who was reported at the point of death with diphtheria, was slightly improved at last accounts.

The firemen are making elaborate preparations for the ball to be given by them April 18. The programmes will be the handsomest ever seen in this region; it is to be a swell affair throughout.

One of the unfortunate women on the row was arrested yesterday and fined $10 for fast driving. She remained in jail a few hours before her particular friend paid the fine, and she was given her liberty.

To-morrow evening at St. Mark's Episcopal church right Rev. Bishop Brewer of Helena will conduct services and administer the rite of confirmation to a class of young people. The services will be very impressive and interesting.

Swan Melrose is disposed to look upon the square street corners as an outrage. Swan is no gossiping but when it comes to flying around a square street corner with a buggy he is not in it; at least he wasn't in it very long yesterday. He was out for a drive last evening and drove around the corner in front of the Palace hotel so fast that all the spokes in one of the wheels of the buggy were smashed. Melrose and the young lady who was riding with him were spilled into the street. Neither was much hurt, but the escape of both from serious injury was remarkable under the circumstances.

The story goes that when in Europe a year ago Miss Granger heard of the intended production at the Theatre de l'Application, Paris, of a play which was described to her as one of singular intensity and dramatic force. Acting upon the suggestion of a friend, she witnessed the production of the play, and was struck with its originality and the opportunities it offered to an emotional star. She negotiated for its purchase and was in time successful. The play was the joint effort of that brilliant litterateur and journalist, Richard Dreyfus, of the London Times, and Mrs. Lucy Hooper, the accomplished American publications. In was originally produced under the title of "L'Heritage d'Helene," and gave great satisfaction to the critics of Paris, and particularly to Mr. Francisque Sarcey, who pronounced it "powerful and weirdly dramatic play." "Inherited," as Miss Granger has rechristened the play, is described as being much the same class of play as "Fedora," or "La Tosca," though with a morale of a decidedly purer nature. What will prove of interest to the ladies in connection with Miss Granger's engagement will be those magnificent costumes which she appears to have the knack of wearing to better advantage than any actress we can call to mind. She is a wonderful dresser and her costumes are always a revelation in the way of the dressmaker's art. Miss Granger's engagement at Evans opera house to-morrow evening is attracting no little attention.

Don't overlook Brandon, the druggist's, ad. "The changed every day."

I will open my spring and summer stock of millinery March 30th and the following days. In addition to a large and beautiful line of patterns I will show all the latest novelties in straw, ribbons, laces, flowers, etc. I will be pleased to have all the ladies call. Mrs. T. B. MALLORY. IT IS NOT IN THE LAW

No Warrant Found For Giving County Officers Extra Pay.

HASKELL HAS SAID IT

An Opinion From High Authority Upon a Much Vexed and Greatly Discussed Question.

The question as to whether or not the county clerks, county assessors, and county treasurers are entitled to receive extra pay for their services rendered in connection with the collection of taxes, and the assessing of property in cities, has been up and down again for discussion in the city council of this city. For some time the practice has been for this and other cities in this country to pay these county officers extra for their services in performing the work named above. But a bill presented by County Clerk Brazelton to Anaconda's city council sometime ago brought the question to a point. Mr. Brazelton claimed that the work in extending the tax roll for this city entailed too much extra labor in his office and he was compelled to hire additional help to perform the work. His bill was discussed at several meetings of the city council and some of the aldermen said that it should be paid. Previous councils had paid such bills without a question; it was argued that this council should pay for labor performed for the city which cost the county clerk all that he asked in return. Alderman Fitzpatrick and others desired that the bill be allowed; Alderman Walkup led the opposition and at the last meeting of the council the motion to allow the bill was defeated.

City Attorney English said he did not think the city was bound to pay extra for this class of work. In order to obtain the attorney general's opinion upon the question, Mr. English wrote to Mr. Haskell the following letter:

Hon. H. J. Haskell, Attorney General, Helena, Mont.

My DEAR SIR: Will you be kind enough to give me your opinion in regard to the following questions, viz:

First—Section 12, page 152, of the 10th session laws of Montana fixed the amount to be received for all services performed by county treasurers. Are citizens of the second class obliged to pay them extra for collecting city taxes, or are they compelled to collect them the same as school taxes or other taxes?

Second—Section 14, same page, provides for the salary of county assessors. Are cities compelled to pay them extra for the city work?

Third—Section 4, page 148, provides for the payment of services performed by county clerks and recorders. Can they charge a city extra for city work?

See section 17, on page 153, and section 13, on pages 183 and 184. Your answer to the above will confer a favor upon yours very truly,

JOHN C. ENGLISH.

Anaconda, Mont., March 25, 1892.

In reply to this letter Mr. English received the following:

John C. English, City Attorney, Anaconda, Montana:

DEAR SIR:—Herewith we note the receipt of yours of March 25 and the request therein contained for an opinion from this department upon three separate questions, which will be noted in the opinion.

Incidental to the determination of the question: "Whether assessors, county clerks and treasurers are entitled to an additional compensation in the performance of the duties imposed upon them in the matter of the assessing of property in cities of the second class," duty of county clerk in placing the taxes assessed and levied upon the assessment roll; and the collection of such taxes and remitting of the same to the city authorities by the county treasurer; it may be noted that the provisions of chapter 22 of the fifth division general laws, provide: "That the assessor for such service shall be entitled to a reasonable compensation therefor, to be allowed and paid by said city or town. Section 375: And the county clerk shall place all such taxes on the tax list of the county, and all such taxes shall be collected and the payment enforced with, and in like manner as state and county taxes are paid and the payment thereof enforced, and the county treasurer, upon the order of the county clerk, shall pay such taxes over to the municipal treasurer immediately after such settlement, and such settlement shall be made on the first Monday in each month. Section 379.

Section 375 above noted, specifically authorizes a reasonable compensation to be granted to the assessor for the services so rendered to and performed for the city, but section 379 does not specify even inferentially that compensation shall be granted to the county clerk or county treasurer in the performance of any duty that may be imposed upon them under its provisions; yet it might be contended that under the general laws which confer upon the county treasurer the authority to collect taxes and to deduct a certain per centum therefrom for the performance of such duty, that he would be entitled to take for himself or on behalf of the county a per centum out of any funds collected by him for the city.

In this connection we here note that the authority to demand on the part of the county officers, and as well as the authority to pay them by the county commissioners, a compensation, fee or reward for any service or services performed by them in their official capacity must be specific, definite and certain, and must not depend upon inference or implication.

In 1889 the legislature amended section 375 by omitting therefrom that clause which provided that: "The assessor shall be entitled to a reasonable compensation therefor, to be allowed and paid by said city or town." Therefore the assessor cannot lawfully demand any compensation for his services to be rendered the city under the provision of section 375 as amended, unless it shall appear that such right is given him, as well as the county clerk and treasurer, under the general laws of the state which prescribe and define the duties of all officers.

We have not closely examined the general laws which specify and define the duties of the three officers herein named, to determine whether there might be inserted therein such authority or delegation of power that would authorize them to demand and the county or city to pay for such services, as might be required and they might render the city under the provisions of sections 375 and 379 of chapter 22 of fifth division of general laws; for the reason that we are content in the determination of these questions to depend upon the broad provisions and inhibitions contained in section 9 of "An act concerning compensation of county, district and township officers," approved March 6, 1891, which provides, among other things: "That the fees and salaries in this act provided shall be all the compensation by law allowed such officers for all services which they are required to, or by law can perform as such officers. Any such officers who shall receive any fee, or reward, or salary not specifically provided for by law, shall be liable to the county, state or persons paying the same, etc."

We are of the opinion that the provisions of the last named section are sufficiently broad to place a prohibition upon the three officers here in question from demanding and receiving any compensation whatever or at all for any services that they may render or be called upon to render cities of the first or second class in accordance with the provisions of the chapter last above noted.

Therefore the first clause in your first question must be answered in the negative and the second and third questions must be answered in the negative. Respectfully yours,

H. J. HASKELL, Attorney General.

Helena, March 26.

A Letter From Dr. Minshall.

To the Editor of the Standard.

Without wishing to enter into the controversy now on between the Silver State and County Commissioners, Hamilton, touching the matter and manner of letting the recent county contracts, I desire to correct the impression conveyed in Mr. Hamilton's card appearing in your paper yesterday, that I, at any time, pending the award or before, neglected the patients at the county hospital.

Briefly stated, the facts are these: My contract as county physician and the responsibility of my bondsmen expired March 10. The previous day I made a visit to the hospital and found the patients convalescent and able to be about the wards and grounds. It is well, perhaps, to state in this connection that it has never been the custom of the county physician to visit the hospital on stated days or hours. He is governed in this matter solely by the requirements of cases on hand, or makes his visits in response to calls from the Catholic sisters in charge.

As the matter came before him officially, Mr. Hamilton must know that I was far from indifferent to the emergency, in which the county sick were placed, for after the expiration of my contract and pending the new award, I administered treatment to several convalescents who regularly visited my office, and the necessities of their arrival at the institution I attended the two patients especially referred to in his communication.

These matters were all referred to the commissioners before their adjournment. In implying, even by quoting hearsay, that I exhibited the slightest indifference to the necessities of the county charges, Mr. Hamilton certainly does me an injustice.

S. W. MINSHALL.

Patti Rosa.

The famous comedienne, Patti Rosa, than whom no one enjoys a greater share of popularity throughout the entire country, comes to Evans opera house Monday evening next. Her talents, originality and remarkable versatility have placed her at the very head and front in her line of acting. She is essentially a comedienne and her performances appeal to all who enjoy fun, mirth and jollity—and who does not? She brings with her one of the best and most compact comedy companies in existence. In it are Will Mandeville, recently the leading comedian in the opera, "The Little Tycoon," Joe Cawthorn, who cannot be excelled as a dialect comedian, John W. Dunne, Gerald Griffin, Edgar S. Halstead, Marlene Moriarty, Grace Gayler, Clark, Carrie Francis, Fannie E. Jacobs and others. In "Dolly Varden" and "Imp" Patti Rosa has two delightful plays and her engagement will be heartily welcome.

DRUBBED BY A DRUMMER

Drummond Has a Livery Man Who Was Rigged Out in Style.

SAMPLES THAT CAUGHT ON

They Were Given With a Lavish Hand—A Prize Fight Without a Prize—'Twas a Lively Scrap.

Special to the Standard.

PHILIPSBURG, March 29.—Quite a good story of a recent occurrence at Drummond floated up this way this evening. It appears that some years ago a traveling man named Merchant hired a team from Joseph Daddow, the Drummond livery man, and left $12 at the hotel to pay for it. This amount did not satisfy Daddow, and every time Merchant goes through Drummond the livery man asks him for the balance due, and a day or so ago the two men had some very hot words about the matter, which resulted in the brawny livery man offering the drummer a $5 note to go out and settle the matter in accordance with the revised rules of the late Marquis of Queensberry.

To the surprise of all listeners the debt was promptly accepted and the regulation ring marked out in the sand on the river bank. The drummer quietly divested himself of all superfluous clothing, and when time was called both men, although about 50 years of age, stepped to the center of the ring with the alacrity of young colts.

The livery man led viciously, but was neatly stopped, and a counter from the drummer knocked him down, though not out. Forgetting all rules the drummer grabbed his fallen antagonist by the neck and pounded his face until he cried enough.

Mr. Merchant then demanded the $5 purse and gate receipts, and as it was not paid he threatened to stop off at Drummond every trip and whip the man who has been so persistent in his efforts to collect that little bill.
